

GŴYL
GREGYNOG
FESTIVAL

GREGYNOG FESTIVAL 2010: PRINCIPAL CONCERTS

Subscription booking by cheque for reserved seating for the principal concerts in the 2010 Festival opened on 22 January 2010 for members of the Festival's Patrons' Circle, and on 15 February 2010 for the general public. All orders will be dealt with in the order received. Please fill in the form as indicated together with your contact details and post with your cheque to the Box Office address overleaf. You can also book online by credit card: www.gwylgregynogfestival.org

DATE	PRINCIPAL CONCERTS	TICKET TYPE	NO.	TICKET PRICE	TOTAL COST
Friday, 11 June 7.30pm	Emma Kirkby and London Handel Players Music for Mrs Arne An evening at the Vauxhall Gardens, including virtuosic arias written by Thomas Arne for his wife, the soprano Cecilia Young	Adult		£20.00
		Young person *		£10.00
Saturday, 12 June 7.30pm	Catrin Finch, harp Programme to include music by John Parry, Parri Ddall , 'the Celebrated Blind Harper of Ruabon'	Adult		£15.00
		Young person		£7.50
Sunday, 13 June 3.00pm	Academy of Ancient Music / Pavlo Beznoziuk A programme in the style of the eighteenth-century Concerts of Antient Music, featuring Handel, Corelli, Geminiani and Avison	Adult		£15.00
		Young person		£7.50
Friday, 18 June 7.30pm	Musicians of the Globe / Philip Pickett A celebration of Queen Elizabeth I's summer progresses to the great country-house gardens of Kenilworth and Elvetham	Adult		£15.00
		Young person		£7.50
Saturday, 19 June 7.30pm	Noriko Ogawa, piano Music for a Japanese garden, including Schumann, Chopin, Debussy and Takemitsu	Adult		£15.00
		Young person		£7.50
Sunday, 20 June 3.00pm	The Tallis Scholars / Peter Phillips Renaissance settings of the Song of Songs by composers including Palestrina, Vivanco and de Rore	Adult		£25.00
		Young person		£12.50
Discount Offer 1	Book for 3 concerts or more	Adult		Save £5 per person
Discount Offer 2	Book for all 6 concerts	Adult		Save £10 per person
Discount Offer 3	Book 10 tickets for any one concert	Adult		Get one seat free
* Young person is 18 or under				SUB TOTAL
DAY PROGRAMMES:
Book for our Saturday day programmes and learn more about this year's Festival themes to enrich your experience of attending our principal concerts
Saturday, 12 June, 10.30am-4.30pm	A Musical Breakfast Performances and presentations to highlight eighteenth-century chamber music by Welsh composers associated with the Williams-Wynn family of Wynnstay (unreserved seating)			£10.00
				Free for children
Saturday, 19 June 10.30am-4.30pm	Japan Day Ahead of Noriko Ogawa's recital this evening, we celebrate all things Japanese with demonstrations, talks and exhibitions (unreserved seating)			£10.00
				Free for children
The Directors reserve the right to amend the programme				TOTAL page 1
Seating preference Section A (rows 1-3) Section B (rows 4-10) Section C (rows 11-15)		Special requests, for example: aisle seat, wheelchair

GWYL
GREGYNOG
FESTIVAL

GREGYNOG FESTIVAL 2010: EVENTS PROGRAMME

Below are booking details for the outreach events associated with this year's Gregynog Festival programme. You can now book for these events alongside the principal concerts. Please note that all these events take place at venues outside Gregynog itself and all seating is unreserved.

DATE	EVENT	TICKET TYPE	NO.	TICKET PRICE	TOTAL COST
Tuesday, 8 June 7.30pm Oriel Davies Gallery, Newtown	Adam Walker, flute, and Huw Watkins, piano Adam Walker has just been appointed principal flute of the London Symphony Orchestra at the age of 21. His recital includes Mozart, Franck and the 2010 Gregynog Festival commission by the brilliant young Welsh composer Huw Watkins.	Adult		£10.00
		Young person *		£5.00
Thursday, 10 June 10.00am - 4.30pm St Mary's Church, Ruabon	Celebrating John Parry Illustrated talks by authorities on the life and times of the celebrated eighteenth-century harper John Parry, Parri Ddall . Speakers will include Ann Griffiths on John Parry, Miles Wynn Cato on William Parry and Oliver Fairclough on Watkin Williams-Wynn.	Adult		£10.00
		Young person		£5.00
Thursday, 10 June 7.30pm St Mary's Church, Ruabon	Celebrating John Parry A special triple harp concert to mark the tercentenary of the birth of Parri Ddall in the Church where he is buried. Performers will include Robin Huw Bowen, Rhes Ganol, Ann Griffiths and Angharad Evans.	Adult		£10.00
For all enquiries, contact us on 01686 207100 or post@gwylgregynogfestival.org				TOTAL page 2
				TOTAL TO BE PAID BY CHEQUE

Please complete your contact details here and send with your cheque to the address below:

Name _____

Address _____

_____ Postcode _____

Telephone _____

E-mail _____

If you would like to receive e-Newsletters from the Festival, please tick here _____

Gregynog Festival Box Office
Llwyn y Brain
Adfa
Newtown
Powys
SY16 3DA